TRAILS PROGRAM ANNOUNCES:

A SECOND CALL FOR
2011-2012 STATE ADOPT-A-TRAIL GRANT PROGRAM
APPLICATIONS

2011-2012 ADOPT-A-TRAIL GRANT APPLICATIONS ARE AVAILABLE ONLINE AT
THE
NC STATE TRAILS WEBSITE

NEW APPLICATION DEADLINE – MAY 20, 2011

The Division of Parks and Recreation and the State Trails Program are seeking additional applications for the 2011-2012 State Adopt-A-Trail Program. The numbers of applications received during the initial call were below average and members of the North Carolina Trails Committee recommended we invite agencies and organizations to apply for a second round of Adopt-A-Trail grant applications.

We are seeking applications that will accomplish the following:

- Website and brochures that promote existing trails
- New trail construction projects that are “shovel ready”
- Trailhead and trail markers
- Trail renovation projects
- Trailside facilities

AAT Applications in PDF Format

The State Trails Program is pleased to offer the AAT grant applications in a .pdf format. Download the current version of Adobe Acrobat Reader then download the Adopt-A-Trail application. Before you begin work on your grant application, please review the grant overview and instructions provided on our website.

Please submit any questions electronically to Vincent T. Newman-Brooks. Your request will be logged and tracked. The State Trails Specialist most qualified to answer your question will contact you shortly. Questions that frequently arise and their answers will be listed in a Frequently Asked Questions page.

We wish you the best with your grant application and thank you for all you do to provide and manage trails across North Carolina.
